Code of Conduct

*All participants must sign in upon arrival and sign out if leaving early.

*After entering the dance hall, all participants must remain in the building. Parents of any participant who leaves the building will be called, and the participant will be asked to leave the premises.

*Dance with room for the Holy Spirit between the dancers *No running or horseplay

*Be respectful of all participants, instructors, and adult volunteers

*Dance Etiquette:

- Who does the asking? Gentlemen ask ladies to dance, and ladies graciously accept. This is the traditional order of dances. Ladies should accept invitations to dance to show honor and respect for the gentlemen's courage. Declining to dance is okay if the lady plans to sit out that entire dance. Refusing one gentleman and then immediately accepting another is insulting to the one refused, so we ask that ladies show grace and charity by avoiding that.
- Help everyone feel welcome: This is a no-date dance. Please be open to including those who need a partner and be a kind and honorable dancer to all. The purpose of the dance is to build fellowship, learn new dancing techniques, and honor our Lord above all.

I have read and will adhere to the Code of Conduct and understand that non-compliance may result in non-admittance or the contacting of parents and removal from the premises.
